Case No.: CGC-25-631801

(Related to Case No.: CGC-21-594102)

DECLARATION OF VICTORIA ROSARIO RE: RE-SERVICE AND SUFFICIENCY OF SERVICE

I, VICTORIA ROSARIO, declare:

1. I was designated by Plaintiff Franciscus Dylan Rosario to attempt personal service of the Amended Complaint, Summons, Notice of Case Management Conference, ADR Information Package, and Memorandum in Support on all Defendants. I have personal knowledge of the facts stated in this declaration and am reporting my service efforts.
2. Plaintiff is re-serving these documents on all Defendants to establish a complete service record and to anticipate any claim by Defendants that they were not properly served or that prior service was defective.

3. I made three distinct in-person attempts to effect personal service upon each of the following: Defendants' counsel and law firms (Phillips, Spallas & Angstadt LLP; Priya D. Navaratnasingham; Alberto Reyna; Michael R. Chambers; Carbone, Smith & Koyama); Defendant CSAA Insurance Exchange (both at its corporate office and at the address of its registered agent for service of process); and Defendant Subhi Abdelhalim. Each attempt was unsuccessful due to locked doors, refusal of staff or security to accept service, non-accessible corporate offices, or the defendant's absence with no answer or refusal of receipt. After these three attempts, Plaintiff has resorted to court-approved substitute service via certified mail, return receipt requested, as a matter of necessity due to Defendants' attempts to avoid service. All records of these attempts are included with this filing.
4. Attempts on Defendants' Lawyers and Law Firms: On February 25, 2026, I attended 560 Mission Street, Suite 1010, San Francisco, CA 94105 (Phillips, Spallas & Angstadt LLP). The suite entrance was secured; a receptionist, when contacted, stated she was not authorized to accept service and declined to receive the documents. On February 26, 2026, I made a second attempt; the door remained locked during business hours and no one would accept delivery. On February 27, 2026, I made a third attempt; security or staff again refused to accept service. I also attempted service at 555 12th Street, Suite 1250, Oakland, CA 94607-4095 (Carbone, Smith & Koyama; Michael R. Chambers) on February 25, 26, and 27, 2026; the entrance was secured or staff declined to accept service on each attempt.
5. Attempts on CSAA Insurance Exchange: On February 25, 2026, I attended CSAA's corporate address at 3055 Oak Road, Mailstop W280, Walnut Creek, CA 94597. The building entrance was secured; a person at the entrance declined to accept service. I also attempted the address of CSAA's designated registered agent for service of process; the office was closed or the door was locked with no response. On February 26, 2026, I made a second attempt at both locations; at the corporate office, security personnel refused to accept the documents; at the registered agent's address, the door remained locked. On February 27, 2026, I made a third attempt; both locations remained non-accessible, with locked doors and refusal by security or staff to accept service.

6. Attempts on Defendant Subhi Abdelhalim: On February 25, 2026, I attempted service at Defendant Abdelhalim's last known residence (from underlying case CGC-21-594102). There was no answer at the door. I also attempted his place of business; I was informed he was not present and staff declined to accept service. On February 26, 2026, I made a second attempt at both locations; at his residence, there was again no answer; at his place of business, I was told he was not present and service was refused. On February 27, 2026, I made a third attempt; there was no answer at his residence and refusal of receipt at his place of business.
7. Having been unable to effect personal service after three distinct in-person attempts at each location, Plaintiff is now effecting substitute service per Code Civ. Proc., § 415.20 by mailing copies via Certified Mail, Return Receipt Requested, to the addresses set forth above. Service is being made as follows:
   - CSAA Insurance Exchange: Certified mail to 3055 Oak Road, Mailstop W280, Walnut Creek, CA 94597, and to its registered agent.
   - Subhi Abdelhalim: Certified mail to his usual place of abode or residence (last known address from CGC-21-594102).
   - Phillips, Spallas & Angstadt LLP; Priya D. Navaratnasingham; Alberto Reyna: Certified mail to 560 Mission Street, Suite 1010, San Francisco, CA 94105.
   - Michael R. Chambers; Carbone, Smith & Koyama: Certified mail to 555 12th Street, Suite 1250, Oakland, CA 94607-4095.
8. The Court's Notice of Case Management Conference (May 27, 2026, 10:30 a.m., Department 610) requires Plaintiff to serve a copy of that notice upon each party with the summons and complaint. Proof of service filed with the Court shall so state. The Notice of Case Management Conference is being served together with the Amended Complaint and Summons to comply fully with that requirement.
9. Defendants have previously used procedural challenges to service as a means of delay in related proceedings. Plaintiff is re-serving now to establish an undisputable service record, avoid a jurisdictional dispute, and expedite this action for the Court and all parties. The resort to substitute service via certified mail is a matter of necessity following Defendants' avoidance of personal service after multiple diligent attempts.

10. I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed on March 3, 2026, at San Francisco, California.
