REQUEST FOR COURT REPORTER BY PARTY WITH FEE WAIVER
CASE NUMBER: CGC-25-631802

INSTRUCTIONS

If you have been granted, or are applying for, a waiver of court fees and costs, you may use this form to request the services of an official court reporter for a hearing or trial for which a court reporter is not otherwise provided and for which electronic recording is not provided.

- You should make a request 10 calendar days before any court date for which you want a reporter. If the court date is scheduled with less than 10-days' notice, you should file the request as soon as you can.
- If you do not file the request on time, the court may be unable to provide a court reporter on the date requested and may have to reschedule the hearing or trial.
- There will be no fee to you for the court reporter being at the hearing if you have a fee waiver.
- Note: Having a court reporter does not guarantee the right to get a free transcript. To learn more about transcripts and records for an appeal, read the Self Help webpages for civil appeals, particularly courts.ca.gov/designating-record.

If you are eligible, the court will try to schedule a court reporter for the court proceeding but cannot guarantee that one will be available at that time.
