[Quote 1]

Thank you for calling me yesterday to discuss this, so-called, "motion to compel meet and confer & request for sanctions." As we discussed on the phone (inter alia) you can file whatever you like; however, this motion is hopelessly defective for several reasons. First, as a threshold matter, you have no statutory basis to move to compel me to meet and confer. Put another way: no such motion to compel exists-making this draft motion completely baseless and legally unsupportable. Second, and more importantly, I have already met and conferred with you on the impending demurrer to your First Amended Complaint, in writing, and on two phone calls lasting nearly an hour each call. Those calls, as you know, took place on Wednesday April 8, 2026, and Thursday April 9, 2026. We discussed the facts and law of this case, extensively, and in so doing it became abundantly clear that you will not withdraw the pleadings or revise them to address the bevy of issues ripe for Anti-SLAPP and Demurrer as noted in my April 6, 2026 meet and confer letter (re: demurrer and Anti-SLAPP).

[Quote 2]

We are at an impasse, and if you will not withdraw the pleadings, I have no choice but to file these motions. Indeed, my office has already filed the Anti-SLAPP motion in this case and served it on you by mail. The Demurrer will be filed on Monday April 13, 2026. My office will seek attorneys' fees and costs incurred in filing the Anti-SLAPP motion; hence, I again urge you to withdraw the pleadings, and dismiss all allegations, with prejudice, as your First Amended Complaint is legally untenable.

[Quote 3]

I also want to note that if you file your draft "motion to compel meet and confer & request for sanctions," I will oppose it and request further sanctions against you, for frivolously seeking to sanction my office for the wholly justified acts of repeatedly engaging in good faith meet and confer with you, several times, as the Code requires. I am well aware of my obligations as an officer of the Court, and I have been very forthright with you.

[Quote 1]

As I have already shared with you in parallel email correspondences, your position on this issue (amending the pleadings)-and generally in this litigation-has absolutely zero merit and is obviously designed to waste my time, my clients' resources, and the Court's time. The Court is not going to appreciate your incessant clogging of the docket with meritless "motions," "bench briefs," and "supplemental" filings, and this most recent erroneous filing: your "motion for leave to file a Second Amended Complaint" (and even a Third Amended Complaint); all while my clients' Anti-SLAPP motion is pending.

[Quote 2]

Crucially, at this juncture, your efforts to amend your pleading is clearly a not-at-all-veiled effort to subvert and sidestep an impending Anti-SLAPP ruling. The Court is not going to countenance this behavior from you-as you should have learned this morning.

[Quote 3]

Finally, I want to acknowledge what is clearly your penchant for seeking to bury my office in paper (motions, emails, letters, etc.). Your manner of litigating this case is clearly harassing, intended to be overly burdensome, and most importantly: lacks anything resembling legal merit. Your reliance on artificial intelligence to draft your correspondence and so-called legal memoranda succeeds only in smearing a paper-thin veneer of sophistication on your writing, which evaporates the moment your cited authorities are actually analyzed. While I have not, nor will I, respond to each and every one of your email correspondences out of respect for my clients' resources, know that I am receiving your correspondences and motions and I am affording each one its respective and requisite due attention.

[Quote 1]

The Court, in Department 301, issued a tentative ruling about 90 minutes ago, on your Motion for leave to file a Second Amended Complaint. You did not request argument on that ruling; and therefore, you cannot appear and present oral argument on that motion. I write you here given my unfortunate experience with you last week, on April 30, 2026, in Department 302 with Judge Quinn, where you similarly did not request oral argument, yet you still appeared to present argument, in Court. That appearance was completely inappropriate, without proper notice, and the Judge Quinn admonished you accordingly.

[Quote 2]

I want to be very clear that if you attempt the same inappropriate appearance at this hearing in Dept 301, I will request that the Court issue a similar admonishment, including potentially contempt sanctions for violating the Rules of Court.
