EXHIBIT 1 — MERGED PRONG-ONE
OPPOSITION CHECKLIST
(Lodged Apr. 28, 2026)

Anti-SLAPP Hearing: May 13, 2026
Dept.: 302
Judge: Hon. Joseph M. Quinn

and hearings addressed:

Case	Caption	Court	Anti-SLAPP hearing
CGC-25-631801	Rosario v. CSAA Insurance Exchange; Carbone, Smith & Koyama, LLP; Michael R. Chambers; Phillips, Spallas & Angstadt, LLP; Priya D. Navaratanasingham; Alberto Reyna	Hon. Christine Van Aken, Dept. 301	May 12, 2026 (per TAC § Defense Hearings)
CGC-25-631802	Rosario v. CSAA Insurance Exchange	Hon. Joseph M. Quinn, Dept. 302	May 13, 2026 (per TAC § Defense Hearings)

Basis: This checklist synthesizes three prior prong-one outline structures used for triage—a ten-point court-ready checklist (operative claims versus imagined theories through public-interest and illegality predicates); a four-point checklist emphasizing gravamen, the statutory “but for” linkage, challenged communications versus underlying conduct; and a four-point narrowing checklist on striking real claims versus background and litigation privilege—with the strongest formulation kept for shared items, duplication removed, and case-distinct reasoning set out in Part II (CGC-25-631801) and Part III (CGC-25-631802). It applies to the May 2026 Anti-SLAPP hearings in those companion actions.

Disclaimer: I am self-represented and not an attorney. This document is a checklist-style synthesis of California anti-SLAPP prong-one doctrine for use in oppositions to two pending special motions to strike. It is not legal advice; verify every citation and 1 tailor every paragraph to the specific motion before filing.

3 PART I — SHARED PRONG-ONE CHECKLIST (APPLIES TO BOTH 4 801 AND 802)

5 This Part is drafted to be lifted as a single block into either opposition. Every item in this Part 6 is a generic prong-one defect that fails the defense motion in both actions independently of case-
7 specific facts. Where a case-specific application is needed, see Part II (CGC-25-631801) or Part 8 III (CGC-25-631802) below.

9 DEFENDANTS CANNOT SATISFY PRONG ONE BECAUSE THEY FAIL
10 TO SHOW:

11 1. That the motion is directed to the actual operative causes of action and distinct claims
12 for relief, rather than to imagined theories, stray allegations, or non-existent counts. Case 13 anchors: Baral v. Schnitt (2016) 1 Cal.5th 376, 393–395 (anti-SLAPP motion must identify and 14 target the specific allegations of protected activity that supply the elements of a pleaded claim for 15 relief); Bonni v. St. Joseph Health System (2021) 11 Cal.5th 995, 1010–1012.

16 2. That the acts they identify are themselves protected acts within Code of Civil Procedure §
17 425.16(e), rather than ordinary underlying conduct merely described in writings or litigation
18 papers. Case anchors: Wilson v. Cable News Network, Inc. (2019) 7 Cal.5th 871, 884; Park v.
19 Board of Trustees of California State University (2017) 2 Cal.5th 1057, 1062–1063.

20 3. That the challenged claims “arise from” protected activity in the statutory sense, meaning 21 the protected act itself supplies the basis for liability, rather than merely triggering the suit,
22 providing context, or furnishing evidence. Case anchors: City of Cotati v. Cashman (2002) 29
23 Cal.4th 69, 76–78; Park, supra, 2 Cal.5th at 1063–1064; Equilon Enterprises v. Consumer Cause,
24 Inc. (2002) 29 Cal.4th 53, 66.

25 4. That the principal thrust or gravamen of each cause of action arises from protected peti-
26 tioning or free-speech activity, rather than from non-communicative pre-litigation conduct.
27 Case anchors: Park, supra, 2 Cal.5th at 1062–1063; Baral, supra, 1 Cal.5th at 394–395; Rusheen

1 v. Cohen (2006) 37 Cal.4th 1048, 1056 (distinguishing communicative from non-communicative 2 acts).

3 5. That the allegedly protected communication is itself the injury-producing conduct, rather
4 than proof of separate non-communicative wrongdoing. Case anchors: Park, supra, 2 Cal.5th 5 at 1060, 1064–1065 (“a claim may be struck only if the speech or petitioning activity itself is the 6 wrong complained of”); Bonni, supra, 11 Cal.5th at 1009.

7 6. That the claims would not have been brought “but for” the allegedly protected activity,
8 as opposed to having been triggered by, or merely connected with, it. Case anchors: City of 9 Cotati, supra, 29 Cal.4th at 78; Park, supra, 2 Cal.5th at 1068; Rand Resources, LLC v. City of 10 Carson (2019) 6 Cal.5th 610, 621.

11 7. That each challenged cause of action, or each distinct claim for relief within a cause of 12 action, is tied to a specific protected act on a claim-by-claim basis, rather than through a
13 global characterization of the case. Case anchors: Baral, supra, 1 Cal.5th at 393–395; Bonni, 14 supra, 11 Cal.5th at 1010–1011.

15 8. That the motion targets a claim for relief that may actually be stricken, rather than mere 16 background allegations, evidentiary references, or factual narrative. Case anchors: Baral, 17 supra, 1 Cal.5th at 393–394; Park, supra, 2 Cal.5th at 1064.

18 9. That any prelitigation communication on which Defendants rely was made in serious
19 and good-faith contemplation of litigation, rather than as part of ordinary business, claims-
20 handling, regulatory, or evidentiary activity. Case anchors: Neville v. Chudacoff (2008) 160
21 Cal.App.4th 1255, 1268–1269; Briggs v. Eden Council for Hope & Opportunity (1999) 19 Cal.4th 22 1106, 1115.

23 10. That, to the extent Defendants invoke § 425.16(e)(3) or (e)(4), the speech concerns a gen-
24 uine public issue or issue of public interest under the required content-and-context analysis,
25 rather than a private dispute repackaged as “speech.” Case anchors: FilmOn.com Inc. v. Dou-
26 bleVerify Inc. (2019) 7 Cal.5th 133, 149–150; Wilson v. Cable News Network, supra, 7 Cal.5th at 27 890–892.

28 11. That any amended pleading reopened a fresh anti-SLAPP window as to the claims they

1 now attack, rather than merely reasserting an untimely challenge to claims already present
2 in earlier pleadings. Case anchors: Newport Harbor Ventures, LLC v. Morris Cerullo World
3 Evangelism (2018) 4 Cal.5th 637, 645–646, 650.

4 12. That the conduct for which they seek anti-SLAPP protection is not illegal as a matter of 5 law, because the anti-SLAPP statute does not shield unlawful conduct simply because it was
6 carried out through speech or petitioning activity. Case anchors: Flatley v. Mauro (2006) 39
7 Cal.4th 299, 317–320. (Per-case illegality predicates: § 6128(a) and Rule 3.3(a)(1) for Case 801;
8 Insurance Code § 790.03(h) and 10 CCR § 2695.7 for Case 802. See Parts II and III below.)

9 13. That the Litigation Privilege (Civ. Code § 47(b)) reaches the underlying non-communicative 10 misconduct on which liability depends, because the privilege does not immunize non-communicative 11 tortious courses of conduct, nor can a defendant retroactively immunize a prior bad act by 12 later writing a pre-litigation letter or filing a tribunal paper that describes it. Case anchors:
13 Kimmel v. Goland (1990) 51 Cal.3d 202, 211 (privilege applies only to communicative acts; does 14 not privilege tortious courses of conduct); Rusheen v. Cohen, supra, 37 Cal.4th at 1056, 1058.

15 SHARED CLOSING PARAGRAPH (USE IN EITHER OPPOSITION)

16 Because Defendants fail to identify a pleaded claim whose liability-producing act is protected
17 activity, and instead attack non-existent theories, evidentiary documents, and background
18 allegations, they do not carry their threshold burden under prong one. Under City of Cotati,
19 supra, 29 Cal.4th at 76–78, Park, supra, 2 Cal.5th at 1062–1065, and Baral, supra, 1 Cal.5th
20 at 393–395, the burden therefore never shifts to Plaintiff under prong two, and the special 21 motion to strike must be denied outright.

23 PART II — CASE-SPECIFIC PRONG-ONE BLOCK: CGC-25-631801

24 Caption: Franciscus Dylan Rosario v. CSAA Insurance Exchange; Carbone, Smith & Koyama,
25 LLP; Michael R. Chambers (SBN 132394); Phillips, Spallas & Angstadt, LLP; Priya D. Navarat-
26 nasingham (SBN 252686); Alberto Reyna (SBN 347323); Does 1–20. Court: Superior Court of 27 California, County of San Francisco — Hon. Christine Van Aken, Dept. 301. Anti-SLAPP hear-

1 ing: May 12, 2026 (per TAC). Operative pleading at hearing: Second Amended Complaint (filed
2 Apr. 21, 2026). Proposed Third Amended Complaint lodged for § 425.16(b)(2) step-two consid-
3 eration; MFL-TAC noticed May 22, 2026. Theories: (1) Extrinsic Fraud; (2) & (7) Constructive
4 Fraud (Civ. Code § 1573); (3) Bus. & Prof. Code § 6128(a) Attorney Deceit; (4) Negligence
5 Per Se; (5) Intentional Misrepresentation (Civ. Code § 1710); (6) Aiding and Abetting Fraud
6 (vs. CSAA); (8) Officer-of-the-Court Fiduciary Breach. Reckless-disregard scienter floor under 7 Engalla/Modnick/Sanders/Bily/Wilson/Shaffer.

8 WHY PRONG ONE FAILS ON THE 801 RECORD

9 In addition to the Part I shared defects, Defendants in Case 801 cannot satisfy prong one because 10 they fail to show:

11 801-A. That the tribunal-directed disclaimers they identify as “protected” — Motions in Lim-
12 ine Nos. 6 and 17 (filed Jan. 17, 2025), the Feb. 18, 2025 hearing colloquy (RT 141:4–11), and 13 the April 16, 2025 trial admission (RT 7, 213:13–15) in the underlying *Rosario v. Abdelhalim,
14 CGC-21-594102 — are themselves the injury-producing acts of extrinsic fraud, attorney de-
15 ceit, constructive fraud, and officer-of-the-court fiduciary breach pleaded in the operative 16 complaint, rather than incidental communications that happen to evidence those wrongs.
17 Plaintiff does not sue for the speech; Plaintiff sues because the speech, made by officers of the 18 court speaking as CSAA’s agents under Civ. Code §§ 2330, 2338 and Evid. Code § 1222, “effec-
19 tively prevented” a fair adversary hearing. That is extrinsic fraud as a matter of binding Cal. Sup.
20 Ct. doctrine. Case anchors: Estate of Sanders (1985) 40 Cal.3d 607, 614–616 (fiduciary breach 21 by officer of the court measured objectively); In re Marriage of Modnick (1983) 33 Cal.3d 897, 22 905–907 (concealment that operates as a denial of the existence of evidence is extrinsic fraud);
23 Kougasian v. TMSL, Inc. (2004) 118 Cal.App.4th 1028, 1032–1035 (independent action in equity 24 to set aside judgment procured by extrinsic fraud is not itself a SLAPP).

25 801-B. That the May 4, 2023 file-transfer concealment (Carbone, Smith & Koyama → Phillips, 26 Spallas & Angstadt) — i.e., the non-communicative omission to convey the production his- 27 tory for the 911 audio, body-worn camera footage, and CAD logs — is “protected activ-
28 ity” within § 425.16(e) at all. That handoff is a non-communicative file-handling act; it is not “speech” or “petitioning”; and it is the structural foundation of the constructive-fraud and aiding-and-abetting-fraud counts, which exist independently of any later MIL or hearing speech. Case anchors: Park, supra, 2 Cal.5th at 1060, 1064–1065 (claim is not subject to strike where the speech merely communicates the underlying decision); Rusheen v. Cohen, supra, 37 Cal.4th at 1056 (non-communicative conduct falls outside the statute); Kwikset Corp. v. Superior Court (2011) 51 Cal.4th 310 (anti-SLAPP does not apply to claims challenging underlying business / file-handling practices).

801-C. That the disclaimers and concealment on which Defendants rely are not illegal as a matter of law within the meaning of Flatley v. Mauro. The same conduct that Defendants seek to dress as “petitioning” simultaneously violates (i) Bus. & Prof. Code § 6128(a) (attorney deceit toward a non-client adverse party — Shafer v. Berger, Kahn, Shafon, Moss, Figler, Simon & Gladstone (2003) 107 Cal.App.4th 54, 79–80, expressly reaching reckless disregard); (ii) Cal. Rule of Prof. Conduct 3.3(a)(1) and the duty of candor to the tribunal (with the “knowingly” element satisfied by deliberate avoidance under People v. Smith (2014) 60 Cal.4th 603, 616); and (iii) Code of Civil Procedure § 128.7(b)’s reasonable-inquiry certification floor, Kim v. Westmoore Partners, Inc. (2011) 201 Cal.App.4th 267, 286–287. Conduct that is unlawful as a matter of law is excluded from § 425.16’s protection at the threshold. Flatley v. Mauro (2006) 39 Cal.4th 299, 317–320; cf. Action Apartment Ass’n v. City of Santa Monica (2007) 41 Cal.4th 1232 (limiting Flatley to conduct illegal as a matter of law, a limit Plaintiff’s facts satisfy because the deceit is conceded or undisputed on the face of the certified transcript).

801-D. That Position B (the 2025 panel-counsel disclaimers) and Position A (CSAA’s own Feb. 25, 2021 “concluded investigation” representation in companion Case 802) can both be honest, when both poles are statements of CSAA itself under Civ. Code §§ 2330, 2338 and Evid. Code § 1222. The structural impossibility of honest belief in both poles is, by itself, Engalla reckless disregard and is Position-A-locks-Position-B extrinsic fraud — neither of which is “protected activity” within § 425.16(e). Case anchors: Engalla v. Permanente Medical Group, Inc. (1997) 15 Cal.4th 951, 974; Wilson v. 21st Century Ins. Co. (2007) 42 Cal.4th 713, 720–721; Mock v. Michigan Millers Mutual Ins. Co. (1992) 4 Cal.App.4th 306, 328 (deliberate-avoidance

1 pattern as malice).

2 801-E. That the Litigation Privilege (Civ. Code § 47(b)) immunizes the underlying production-
3 history concealment. The privilege protects communicative acts; the May 4, 2023 file-transfer
4 omission and the failure to retrieve the original 2021 CSAA claim file before certifying disclaimers
5 under § 128.7(b) are non-communicative acts. Defendants cannot dress non-communicative con-
6 cealment in a privilege that reaches only speech. Kimmel v. Goland, supra, 51 Cal.3d at 211;
7 Rusheen v. Cohen, supra, 37 Cal.4th at 1056, 1058; Kwikset, supra, 51 Cal.4th 310.

8 CLOSING PARAGRAPH — CASE 801 (SUGGESTED)

9 Because every act Defendants identify as “protected” is either (i) the very wrong sued upon as 10 extrinsic fraud, attorney deceit, and officer-of-the-court fiduciary breach — and therefore not 11 “protected activity” within § 425.16(e) under Park and Bonni — or (ii) a non-communicative
12 file-handling omission that was never speech to begin with — and therefore outside the statute
13 under Rusheen and Kimmel — and because the same conduct is illegal as a matter of law
14 under Bus. & Prof. Code § 6128(a) and Rule 3.3(a)(1), placing it outside § 425.16 under 15 Flatley*, Defendants do not carry their prong-one burden. The special motion to strike must 16 be denied without reaching prong two; in the alternative, on the lodged Third Amended
17 Complaint and the Sweetwater record, Plaintiff easily satisfies the minimal-merit showing 18 under prong two on the reckless-disregard scienter floor.

20 PART III — CASE-SPECIFIC PRONG-ONE BLOCK: CGC-25-631802

21 Caption: Franciscus Dylan Rosario v. CSAA Insurance Exchange; Does 1–50. Court: Superior
22 Court of California, County of San Francisco — Hon. Joseph M. Quinn, Dept. 302. Anti-SLAPP
23 hearing: May 13, 2026 (per TAC). Operative pleading at hearing: Second Amended Complaint
24 (filed Apr. 16, 2026). Proposed Third Amended Complaint lodged for § 425.16(b)(2) step-two 25 consideration; MFL-TAC noticed May 26, 2026. Theories: (1) Fraud / Intentional Omission (Civ.
26 Code § 1710(1) & (3)); (2) Concealment / Half-Truth (§ 1710(3)); (3) Unfair Competition (Bus.
27 & Prof. Code § 17200); (4) Negligent Misrepresentation (§ 1710(2)); (5) Declaratory Relief (Code

1 Civ. Proc. § 1060). Reckless-disregard scienter floor under Engalla/Wilson/Bily.

2 WHY PRONG ONE FAILS ON THE 802 RECORD

3 In addition to the Part I shared defects, Defendants in Case 802 cannot satisfy prong one because
4 they fail to show:

5 802-A. That the February 25, 2021 written denial letter (Claim No. 1004-09-1054, signed by 6 Sarah Rash, representing that the investigation was “concluded” and that CSAA had “care-
7 fully reviewed the facts and circumstances of [the] claim”) is itself the injury-producing act,
8 as opposed to the after-the-fact written evidence of the underlying non-communicative reg-
9 ulatory failure to investigate. Plaintiff does not sue because CSAA wrote a letter; Plaintiff sues
10 because CSAA, before writing the letter, affirmatively closed the claim file at twenty-one days
11 without retrieving the four reasonably-available “Silent Witnesses” — (i) the 911 audio recording
12 and the corresponding SFDEM CAD event record; (ii) the SFPD body-worn camera footage; (iii)
13 the SFPD Computer-Aided Dispatch log; and (iv) any supplemental SFPD report concerning the 14 February 4, 2021 collision — each of which was reasonably available by routine subpoena duces
15 tecum (Code Civ. Proc. § 1985 + Evid. Code § 1560), Public Records Act request (Gov. Code §
16 7920 et seq.), Penal Code § 832.7(b) request, or insured-authorization channel. The denial letter
17 is evidence of that underlying regulatory failure, not the actionable wrong. Case anchors: Park, 18 supra, 2 Cal.5th at 1060, 1064–1065 (claim is not subject to strike merely because it contests an 19 action arrived at following speech, or thereafter communicated by speech — the speech itself must 20 be the wrong); Rusheen v. Cohen, supra, 37 Cal.4th at 1056 (non-communicative conduct outside 21 the statute); Kwikset Corp. v. Superior Court, supra, 51 Cal.4th 310 (challenges to underlying 22 business practices not subject to anti-SLAPP).

23 802-B. That CSAA’s Feb. 25, 2021 denial letter is a “prelitigation communication” within § 24 425.16(e)(2) at all, as opposed to ordinary first-party-style claims-handling correspondence 25 sent to an unrepresented direct third-party claimant — i.e., precisely the kind of “ordinary 26 business, claims-handling, or evidentiary activity” that Neville and Briggs exclude from § 27 425.16. A 21-day denial letter to a non-litigating claimant that says the file is “concluded” is the 28 antithesis of “serious and good-faith contemplation of litigation”; it is a regulatory communication

1 governed by the standards in 10 CCR §§ 2695.4(a) and 2695.7(b)–(d), and Insurance Code §
2 790.03(h)(1)/(3)/(5). Case anchors: Neville v. Chudacoff (2008) 160 Cal.App.4th 1255, 1268–
3 1269; Briggs, supra, 19 Cal.4th at 1115.

4 802-C. That CSAA’s pre-litigation, non-communicative, regulatory failure to investigate is 5 “protected activity” within § 425.16(e), or in the alternative, that it is not illegal as a matter
6 of law under Flatley v. Mauro. The same conduct violates (i) the regulatory floor at 10 CCR
7 § 2695.7(d) (“decision must be based on all information reasonably available”); (ii) Insurance
8 Code § 790.03(h)(1), (h)(3), and (h)(5) (failure to acknowledge / promptly investigate / effectuate 9 prompt, fair, equitable settlements); and (iii) the Cal. Sup. Ct. duty under Egan v. Mutual of 10 Omaha Ins. Co. (1979) 24 Cal.3d 809, 818–819, and Wilson v. 21st Century Ins. Co. (2007) 42
11 Cal.4th 713, 720–721, to investigate thoroughly and fairly in the face of inquiry-notice indicia in 12 the file. Conduct that is regulatorily and statutorily prohibited is not transformed into “petitioning”
13 by being later memorialized in a denial letter. Flatley v. Mauro, supra, 39 Cal.4th 299, 317–320.

14 802-D. That Position A (the Feb. 25, 2021 “concluded investigation” representation) and Po-
15 sition B (the 2025 panel-counsel disclaimers in companion CGC-25-631801) can both be hon- 16 est, when both poles are statements of CSAA itself under Civ. Code §§ 2330, 2338, and 17 Evid. Code § 1222 (see also American Mutual Liability Ins. Co. v. Superior Court (1974) 38
18 Cal.App.3d 579, 591–592; *Gulf Insurance Co. v. Berger, Kahn, Shafon, Moss, Figler, Simon
19 & Gladstone (2000) 79 Cal.App.4th 114, 124; Purdy v. Pacific Automobile Ins. Co. (1984) 157
20 Cal.App.3d 59, 76). The structural impossibility of honest belief in both poles is, by itself, Engalla
21 reckless disregard and forecloses any “genuine dispute” defense under Wilson v. 21st Century Ins.
22 Co., supra, 42 Cal.4th at 723 — leaving the defense without a path to recharacterize regulatory 23 misconduct as “speech.”

24 802-E. That the Litigation Privilege (Civ. Code § 47(b)) reaches the underlying premature
25 file-closure act and the institutional “deny-delay-defend” practice pleaded at ¶¶ 28–30. The 26 privilege protects communicative acts; closing a claim file before retrieving reasonably-available
27 first-responder records is a non-communicative regulatory act. Defendants cannot retroactively 28 privilege institutional misconduct by writing a denial letter “about” it. Case anchors: Kimmel v.

1 Goland, supra, 51 Cal.3d at 211; Rusheen v. Cohen, supra, 37 Cal.4th at 1056, 1058.

2 802-F. That CSAA’s “funding and directing of defense counsel” in the underlying *Rosario
3 v. Abdelhalim* litigation is “petitioning” by CSAA itself, given that CSAA was a non-party
4 indemnitor whose underwriting of the defense is commercial and contractual, not petitioning
5 for redress of its own grievances. A non-party insurer’s financial underwriting of an insured’s
6 defense, on its own claim file, is a commercial activity outside § 425.16(e). Case anchors: Park,
7 supra, 2 Cal.5th at 1062–1065; Rusheen, supra, 37 Cal.4th at 1056.

8 CLOSING PARAGRAPH — CASE 802 (SUGGESTED)

9 Because every act Defendant CSAA identifies as “protected” is either (i) ordinary first-party-
10 style claims-handling correspondence to an unrepresented direct third-party claimant — i.e., 11 the kind of regulatory activity Neville and Briggs exclude from § 425.16 — or (ii) the after- 12 the-fact written evidence of CSAA’s pre-litigation, non-communicative regulatory failure to 13 retrieve reasonably-available first-responder evidence before closing the claim file at twenty- 14 one days — i.e., conduct outside § 425.16 under Park, Rusheen, and Kwikset — and because 15 the same conduct is illegal as a matter of law under 10 CCR § 2695.7(d), Insurance Code §
16 790.03(h), and Egan/Wilson, placing it outside § 425.16 under Flatley, CSAA does not carry
17 its prong-one burden. The special motion to strike must be denied without reaching prong
18 two; in the alternative, on the lodged Third Amended Complaint and the Sweetwater record,
19 Plaintiff easily satisfies the minimal-merit showing under prong two on the reckless-disregard 20 scienter floor.
