PLAINTIFF’S FIRST SET OF SPECIAL
INTERROGATORIES AND REQUESTS FOR PRODUCTION

[Code Civ. Proc., § 2030.010 et seq.; Code
Civ. Proc., § 2031.010 et seq.]

INSTRUCTIONS

Pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure sections 2030.010 et seq. and 2031.010 et seq., Plaintiff Franciscus Dylan Rosario propounds the following Special Interrogatories and Requests for Production of Documents to Defendants Phillips, Spallas & Angstadt LLP, Priya D. Navaratnasingham, Alberto Reyna, and Subhi Abdelhalim. Responses and document productions are due within 30 days of service.

Purpose: These discovery requests are designed to establish the “inverse inference” (spoliation and concealment inference) and lock in damages resulting from the Extrinsic Fraud on the Court. Specifically, they address Defendants’ requests for, and receipt of, the 911 logs, videos, and body-worn camera footage more than 20 months before falsely representing to the Court that they “never knew where they came from” or that they “were not produced in discovery.”

SPECIAL INTERROGATORIES

SPECIAL INTERROGATORY NO. 1:

Identify all dates on which you, or anyone acting on your behalf, requested, subpoenaed, or otherwise sought the 911 logs, audio recordings, CAD logs, and/or body-worn camera footage pertaining to the February 4, 2021 collision.

SPECIAL INTERROGATORY NO. 2:

If you contend that you did not possess the 911 audio recording and body-worn camera footage for at least 20 months prior to January 17, 2025, state all facts, identify all witnesses, and describe all documents that support your contention.

SPECIAL INTERROGATORY NO. 3:

Explain in detail how you reconcile your receipt of the 911 logs, videos, and body-worn camera footage from Carbone, Smith & Koyama on or about May 4, 2023, with the representation made to the Court on February 18, 2025, that the 911 call was “news to me.”

SPECIAL INTERROGATORY NO. 4:

Describe the specific steps you took to verify the provenance of the 911 audio and body-worn camera footage before filing Motion in Limine No. 17, which stated: “Defendant has no idea where this 911 call log or audio recording came from.”

SPECIAL INTERROGATORY NO. 5:

State all facts supporting your decision not to inform the trial court that the body-worn camera footage was “provided by Dolan” until April 16, 2025, despite filing motions in limine in January 2025 claiming the materials were of “unknown provenance.”

REQUESTS FOR PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS

REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 1:

All written communications, including emails and internal memoranda, dated between May 4,

2023, and April 25, 2025, that discuss, reference, or relate to the 911 audio recording, CAD logs, or body-worn camera footage for the February 4, 2021 collision.

REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 2:

All transmittal letters, indices, and inventories accompanying the transfer of the defense file from Carbone, Smith & Koyama to Phillips, Spallas & Angstadt LLP on or about May 4, 2023.

REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 3:

All documents, including subpoenas and Public Records Act requests, generated by you or on your behalf at any time prior to January 17, 2025, seeking 911 logs, CAD records, or body-worn camera footage related to the February 4, 2021 collision.

REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 4:

All documents that support your calculation of damages, attorney's fees, and costs incurred in defending against Plaintiff's claims in CGC-21-594102, which Plaintiff contends were inflated by the fraudulent concealment of the 911 and body-worn camera evidence.

Respectfully submitted,

Dated: March 11, 2026
