PLAINTIFF'S SPECIAL
INTERROGATORIES, SET TWO

[Code Civ. Proc., § 2030.010 et seq.]

INSTRUCTIONS

Pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure sections 2030.010 et seq., Plaintiff Franciscus Dylan Rosario propounds the following Special Interrogatories (Set Two) to Defendants Phillips, Spallas & Angstadt LLP, Priya D. Navaratnasingham, Alberto Reyna, Subhi Abdelhalim, Michael R. Chambers, and Carbone, Smith & Koyama. Responses are due within 30 days of service.

Purpose: These special interrogatories seek narrative explanations regarding the matters contained in Plaintiff's Requests for Admission (Set One). Should any Request for Admission (Set One) be denied, or if you failed to respond and a motion to deem admitted is pending or has been granted, these interrogatories compel you to explain all facts surrounding your knowledge and conduct.

SPECIAL INTERROGATORIES

SPECIAL INTERROGATORY NO. 6:

If you deny that Phillips, Spallas & Angstadt LLP received the 911 audio recording, CAD logs, and body-worn camera footage in the defense file transferred from Carbone Smith & Koyama on or about May 4, 2023, explain in detail all facts supporting that denial, including what was contained in the defense file and when you first became aware of these materials.

SPECIAL INTERROGATORY NO. 7:

Explain in detail the factual basis for the representation made by Priya D. Navaratnasingham in open court on February 18, 2025, that the 911 call evidence was “news to me,” including all steps taken to verify the provenance of the materials prior to making that statement.

SPECIAL INTERROGATORY NO. 8:

Explain in detail the factual basis for the representation in Motion in Limine No. 17 that “Defendant has no idea where this 911 call log or audio recording came from,” including identifying every individual who participated in drafting or approving that representation.

SPECIAL INTERROGATORY NO. 9:

Explain in detail the factual basis for the statement made by Alberto Reyna on April 16, 2025, that the supplemental police report was “not anything that we received as part of the subpoena,” including how that representation was reconciled with the prior production of the same records during discovery in August/September 2022.

SPECIAL INTERROGATORY NO. 10:

Describe all facts and communications explaining how Priya D. Navaratnasingham determined on April 16, 2025, that the body-worn camera footage was “provided by Dolan,” and explain why this fact was not disclosed to the Court during the hearings on February 18, 2025, or in the Motions in Limine filed on January 17, 2025.

SPECIAL INTERROGATORY NO. 11:

If you deny that Subhi Abdelhalim stated “I barely hit him with anything” (or substantially similar words) on the 911 audio recording, explain in detail your contention regarding what words were actually spoken, and the basis for that contention.

SPECIAL INTERROGATORY NO. 12 (To Chambers and Carbone, Smith & Koyama):

Explain in detail the protocol, procedures, and actual steps taken to transfer the defense file to Phillips, Spallas & Angstadt LLP on or about May 4, 2023, including whether any transmittal log, index, or inventory of discovery productions was provided.

Respectfully submitted,

Dated: April 25, 2026
