

Authority	Holding (one line)	Relevance
Nguyen-Lam v. Cao (2009) 171 Cal.App.4th 858, 871–872	A noticed motion for leave to amend under CCP § 473(a)(1) and 576 is the proper Code vehicle to place curative pleading on the record.	Rejects a rhetorical label that all amendment law is “irrelevant.”
JKC3H8 Colton (2013) 221 Cal.App.4th 468	v. CCP § 425.16(f) addresses timing and scope of a renewed special motion after amendment, where a special motion is at issue.	Statutory framework for post-supersession proceedings.
Foreman & Clark Corp. v. Fallon (1971) 3 Cal.3d 875, 884	Supersession moots dispositive challenges that rest only on a replaced pleading.	If the SAC is filed, the CCP § 436 motion to the FAC is analyzed under supersession.

On record: 18-FLOW-CHART-801-802-LRSF.md § 4.3; Reply ISO MFL-SAC (May 6, 801), § IX, if lodged.
(LRSF § 8.3.G.)