Case No.: CGC-25-631801

OPPOSITION TO PLAINTIFF'S MOTION
FOR RECONSIDERATION OF MAY 12,
2026 ORDER GRANTING SPECIAL
MOTION TO STRIKE

Date: July, 31, 2026

Time: 9:00 a.m.

Dept: 301

Complaint Filed: December 23, 2025

Amended Complaint Filed: February 25, 2026

1 I. INTRODUCTION

2 Plaintiff's Motion for Reconsideration is procedurally defective; and substantively devoid of any
3 merit. It should be denied.

4 II. BRIEF FACTS

5 On June 21, 2026, Plaintiff served a copy of a Motion for Reconsideration of this Court's May 12,
6 2026, Order granting Defendants' Anti-SLAPP motion. That draft Motion did not have a hearing date
7 listed in the caption. If Plaintiff subsequently served a copy of this motion with a hearing date, it was lost
8 in the veritable cascade of documents that Plaintiff has burdened and harassed the Defense with, since the 9 May 12, 2026 ruling on the Anti-SLAPP motion.¹

10 More importantly, as of June 24, 2026, this Court has not served a Notice of Entry of Order of the 11 May 12, 2026 Minute Order, granting Defendant's Anti-SLAPP motion. Defendants' proposed order on 12 that Anti-SLAPP motion remains pending Court signature. Therefore this motion is not yet ripe.

13 III. LEGAL STANDARD AND ARGUMENT

14 Under Code Civ. Proc. § 1008:

15 (a) When an application for an order has been made to a judge, or to a court, and refused
16 in whole or in part, or granted, or granted conditionally, or on terms, any party affected by 17 the order may, within 10 days after service upon the party of written notice of entry of the 18 order and based upon new or different facts, circumstances, or law, make application to the 19 same judge or court that made the order, to reconsider the matter and modify, amend, or 20 revoke the prior order. The party making the application shall state by affidavit what 21 application was made before, when and to what judge, what order or decisions were made,
22 and what new or different facts, circumstances, or law are claimed to be shown.

23 Here, Plaintiff's moving papers completely fail to raise any "new or different facts, circumstances, 24 or law" that would justify reconsideration of this Court's ruling on Defendants' Anti-SLAPP motion. In 25 reality, Plaintiff's motion simply seeks to relitigate the Anti-SLAPP motion (and his underlying case from 26 2021) and should be summarily denied.

27 ///

28 ¹ Defendant CSAA has recently filed a Motion to Have Plaintiff Deemed a Vexatious Litigant in Plaintiff Rosario's concurrently filed case: entitled: Rosario v. CSAA, S.F. County Case No. CGC-25-631802. That motion is set for hearing on August 26, 2026.

DECLARATION OF
TYLER J. O'CONNELL
RE: [PROPOSED] ORDER
GRANTING DEFENDANTS' SPECIAL
MOTION TO STRIKE PLAINTIFF'S
FIRST AMENDED COMPLAINT
PURSUANT TO C.C.P. § 425.16 (ANTI-SLAPP MOTION)

DATE: MAY 12, 2026

TIME: 9:00 A.M.

DEPT: 301

Complaint Filed: December 23, 2025

Amended Complaint Filed: February 25, 2026

1 I, Tyler J. O’Connell, declare:

2 1. I am an attorney licensed to practice law before all courts in the State of California,
3 and I am an associate at the law firm of Porter Scott, counsel of record for Defendants CSAA
4 INSURANCE EXCHANGE, CARBONE, SMITH & KOYAMA, AND MICHAEL R.
5 CHAMBERS (“Defendants”). Except for those matters stated on information and belief, the facts
6 set forth herein are true of my own personal knowledge and if called as a witness, I could and would 7 properly testify hereto.

8 2. On May 12, 2026, this Court granted Defendants’ Anti-SLAPP motion, after issuing 9 a Tentative Ruling and holding a hearing thereto.

10 3. After this motion was granted, Plaintiff continued to bombard my office, and the 11 Court’s docket, with a continuing cascade of supplemental filings, service documents, and harassing
12 email correspondences.

13 4. I was then out of office from June 1, 2026 – June 14, 2026.

14 5. Meanwhile, my office was handling the filing and hearing on another Anti-SLAPP
15 motion, in the related case filed by Mr. Rosario, entitled Rosario v. CSAA, Case No. CGC25631802.

16 6. Inadvertently, and in light of the concurrently pending Anti-SLAPP motion in Case
17 No. CGC25631802, I simply failed to submit a draft Proposed Order to Plaintiff for his review and 18 stipulation.

19 7. On July 1, 2026, the Anti-SLAPP motion in Case No. CGC25631802, was granted.
20 This Court served a Notice of Entry of Order on that Anti-SLAPP motion—negating the need to 21 prepare a draft Proposed Order in that case.

22 8. On July 10, 2026, upon realizing the omission in this case of a proposed order, I
23 submitted a proposed order copying verbatim the contents of this Court’s May 12, 2026 Tentative 24 Ruling granting Defendants’ Anti-SLAPP motion, in this case.

25 9. Inadvertently, Plaintiff was not served with a copy of this Proposed Order.

26 10. On July 14, 2026, upon realizing the unintentional omission of service of the draft
27 Proposed Order, I immediately sent an email correspondence to Plaintiff, serving a copy of the draft
28 Proposed Order in this case.

11. On July 15, 2026, Plaintiff sent a very lengthy email response to my service of the draft Proposed Order. Plaintiff's email attached twenty (20) service documents, including a "bench brief," "exhibits," "demonstratives," and other documents. It is unknown if any of those documents were intended to be filed by Plaintiff. Regardless, Plaintiff made clear in his email that he refuses to stipulate to Defendants' draft Proposed Order. Plaintiff's stated reasons for refusing to stipulate are largely arguments in an effort to relitigate the Anti-SLAPP motion and dispute this Court's May 12, 2026 Order.

12. I concede this draft Proposed Order should have been served on Plaintiff back in May 2026. That omission was unintentional and simply overlooked given the concurrently pending Anti-SLAPP motion in Case No. CGC25631802. Moreover, it is clear from Plaintiff's July 15, 2026 response, that his true disagreement is with this Court's ruling on the Anti-SLAPP, not any technical or typographical issues with Defendants' draft Proposed Order.

13. Concurrently with this Declaration, and in compliance with Cal. Rules of Court, Rule 3.1312(c), Defendants' file (and email) a true and correct copy of the Draft Proposed Order served on Plaintiff on July 14, 2026.

14. Attached hereto as Exhibit A is a true and correct copy of my July 14, 2026 service email of the draft Proposed Order; and ii) Plaintiff's July 15, 2026 response, refusing to stipulate to this draft Proposed Order.

I declare under the penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct, and that this declaration was executed on July 20, 2026, at Sacramento, California.

Sosinsky v. Grant (1992) 6 Cal.App.4th 1548.

1 question number one means that either somebody has 2 accessed external information specifically about
3 vehicle codes in order to clarify.

4 The Defense should have also -- if they
5 wanted to have those codes in there, they should have 6 provided them to the Jury. They did not.

7 Both of those facts prove there is extraneous
8 Juror misconduct of accessing external information
9 that severely prejudices my case.

10 THE COURT: All right. Is the matter
11 submitted?

12 MR. ROSARIO: Yeah. Thank you, Your Honor.

13 MS. NAVARATNASINGHAM: Yes.

14 THE COURT: All right. First, the motion for 15 a mistrial is denied.

16 With regard to Jury request form number one,
17 first of all, you did not object to the language that 18 was submitted to the Jury.

19 The Court presented that response in Jury
20 request number one to each party before delivering it
21 to the Jury.

22 You've waived that request, sir.

23 In that matter, with regard to Jury request
24 form number one, the Court answered: You may not
25 consider Vehicle Code Sections 22107 and or 21804
26 subdivision A, nor will the Court instruct the Jury on 27 those provisions.

28 That is a sufficient instruction for the Jury

1 to abide by.

2 There has been no evidence that the Jury has
3 considered that as a part of its deliberations.

4 Further, I will point out -- I don't think I
5 needed to point this out -- but neither Vehicle Codes
6 Section 22107 nor 21804 subdivision A were part of the 7 evidence.

8 They simply are not permitted to consider
9 that as evidence in the case, period.

10 Now turning to Jury request form number two,
11 the relevant request here from the Jury, in pertinent 12 part, "Is there a relevant legal definition of 13 'vehicle?', close quote" that we should consider in 14 assessing this testimony?"

15 Question.

16 Answer: Vehicle Code Section provides,
17 quote, "a vehicle is a device by which any person or 18 property may be propelled, moved or drawn upon a 19 highway excepting a device moved exclusively by human 20 power or used exclusively upon stationery rails or 21 tracks."

22 Vehicle Code Section 360 defines "highway"
23 as: "A way or place of whatever nature publicly 24 maintained and open to the use of the public for 25 purposes of vehicle travel. 'Highway' includes 26 street," close quote.

27 The Court -- even if this was something that 28 was gratuitous on the part of the Court, the Court is

1 noted. They are overruled and the Court believes that
2 this is within its discretion to issue these responses
3 in order to clarify for the Jury some issues that they
4 have raised by way of their requests.

5 MR. ROSARIO: So at this point, we are 6 reconsidering on motion -- or on the questions in 7 number one, based upon the fact that there is evidence
8 of external extemporaneous access. This is a second
9 chance here.

10 Again, we are requesting for the mistrial,
11 stating that we feel there is an objection to that.
12 And as of our time right now, we are again
13 reconsidering for the objection that the 14 extemporaneous information about vehicle codes shows
15 that there is evidence and prejudice against the 16 Plaintiff's position based upon external research.

17 We are, again, objecting. We feel that there
18 is absolutely one hundred percent evidence of 19 extemporaneous Juror misconduct on the record, on the 20 record this time.

21 THE COURT: Very well. It is overruled.
22 Anything further?

23 MR. ROSARIO: I guess that is it.
24 Does that settle the record?

25 THE COURT: I think so. Anything else?

26 MR. ROSARIO: Yeah. We believe that --

27 THE COURT: No, sir. You have already 28 provided the Court and submitted your arguments to Hearing held. ARGUED. Court having reviewed the pleadings and having heard oral argument rules as follows:

DEFENDANTS CSAA INSURANCE EXCHANGE, MICHAEL CHAMBERS, and CARBONE, SMITH & KOYAMA's MOTION TO STRIKE Amended COMPLAINT.

Defendants' anti-SLAPP motion to strike is GRANTED. Defendants are entitled to fees and may make a separate motion or seek fees with their cost bill, but a request for a particular amount of fees for the first time on reply does not give sufficient notice.

Case Number: CGC-25-631801

Case Title: FRANCISCUS DYLAN ROSARIO VS. SUBHI ABDELHALIM ET AL

Plaintiff does not meet his prong two. While plaintiff attempts to characterize his claim as an equitable action to vacate a judgment based on extrinsic fraud, it is really a non-cognizable claim based on intrinsic fraud.

“The extrinsic/intrinsic fraud rule is a doctrine developed in courts of equity governing the basis for successful collateral attack on a final judgment by way of an independent proceeding. The rule is that fraud internal to the adversary proceeding, such as perjury committed during trial or error or mistake during the trial, is intrinsic and is not a basis for relief; but fraud that prevented the trial of a claim or prevented the defrauded party from getting into court at all, is extrinsic to the proceeding and is a basis for relief. Obviously, where there has been little or no judicial time invested in trial of a cause or an issue, the factor of judicial economy which otherwise weighs in favor of finality is less strong, and the equitable considerations of fair hearing and of penalizing fraud weigh more compellingly.” (Los Angeles Airways, Inc. v. Hughes Tool Co. (1979) 95 Cal.App.3d 1, 7.) In this case, plaintiff is seeking to vacate a judgment after a full-blown trial and is even appealing the judgment. “Extrinsic fraud usually arises when a party is denied a fair adversary hearing because he has been deliberately kept in ignorance of the action or proceeding, or in some other way fraudulently prevented from presenting his claim or defense.” (Kulchar v. Kulchar (1969) 1 Cal.3d 467, 471 [citation simplified].) Plaintiff complains that movants obstructed his ability to present evidence, but the issues he raises in the FAC were fully litigated in the trial court. (See RFJN Ex. E, Def’s MIL # 6; RFJN Ex. F, Def’s MIL # 8; RFJN Ex. G, Def’s MIL # 17; and RFJN Ex. H, Order re Trial Scheduling and MILs). Plaintiff presented his case, lost, and may pursue his appeal rights.

Civil Code § 47(b) [litigation privilege] does not bar a claim to vacate a claim to vacate a judgment based on extrinsic fraud. (Rubenstein v. Rubenstein (2000) 81 Cal.App.4th 1131, 1147 [absolute litigation privilege bars derivative tort actions (including fraud) but does not eliminate the equitable remedy of vacating a fraudulently obtained judgment].) If plaintiff merely sought to vacate the judgment, there would be no need to name movants (insurer and defense counsel). The litigation privilege, however, does bar plaintiff’s request for “ancillary monetary relief,” which is really a claim for fraud damages against defendants. “The usual formulation is that the privilege applies to any communication (1) made in judicial or quasi-judicial proceedings; (2) by litigants or other participants authorized by law; (3) to achieve the objects of the litigation; and (4) that have some connection or logical relation to the action.” (Silberg v. Anderson (1990) 50 Cal.3d 205, 212.) Defendants establish these elements. “Any doubt about whether the privilege applies is resolved in favor of applying it.” (Kashian v. Harriman (2002) 98 Cal.App.4th 892, 913.) The privilege also “extends to noncommunicative acts that are necessarily related to the communicative conduct...” (Rusheen v. Cohen (2006) 37 Cal.4th 1048, 1065.)

The court grants defendants’ motion to strike the FAC in its entirety. Defendants may seek fees by separate motion. (Code Civ. Proc., § 425.16, subd. (c)(1).) The court does not consider plaintiff’s various supplemental opposition briefs, which were filed without authorization, but does consider plaintiff’s requests for judicial notice.
